Definitions:

"Food" means any raw, cooked, or processed edible substance, ice, beverage or ingredient used or intended for use or for sale in whole or in part for human consumption.

"Bulk food" means a food which when dispensed to the customer is not packaged, wrapped, or otherwise enclosed.

"Operator" means any person, who by contract, agreement, or ownership, takes responsibility for furnishing, installing, servicing, operating, or maintaining one or more vending machines.

"Vending machine" means any self-service device which, upon insertion of a coin, paper currency, token, card or key, dispenses unit servings of food, either in bulk or in packages, without the necessity of replenishing the device between each vending operation. It shall also include self-service dispensers equipped for coin, paper currency, token, card or key operation and optional manual operation. Unless otherwise stated, vending machine includes controlled location vending machines.

"Controlled location vending machine" (limited service vending machine) means a vending machine which:

1. dispenses only nonpotentially hazardous food, and
2. is of such design that it can be filled and maintained in a sanitary manner by untrained persons at the location and
3. is intended for and used at locations in which protection is assured against environmental contamination.
